MANCHESTER, ENGLAND, Novem-er 10.—Propositions for financing the 15 cotton crop in Uganda have been similted to the British government the British Cotton Growing Assoclation.

The Uganda situation is said by officers of the Cotton Growing Association to be extremely critical. Cotton aircady is being delivered for shipment in parts of the South African state and immediate action is imperative to planters who find the market greatly depressed.

Mr. McCall, director of agriculture for Nyassiland, has informed the British Cotton Growing Association that ish Cotton Growing Association that it is impossible for Europeans to grow cotton there which can be delivered in Liverpool at less than 10 cents a pound. Consequently, he predicted all European planters will abandon cotton and plant tobacco instead. The natives are able to produce cotton at less expense.

FOR SPEEDING AUTOMOBILE

Hardin Harris Convicted of Bacing Dr Monument Avenue at Breakneck Speed.

Hardin Harris, 1039 West Grace Street, a student at Richmond College. was yesterday fined $100 and costs by Justice Crutchfield when arraigned in the Police Court on a charge of speed-ing his automobile while on his way to school Friday. An appeal was noted in the case Policeman Samuels testified that he followed Harris's car some distance along Monument Avenue, and that it was making thirty miles an hour. Detective Bryant corroberated Samuels's testimony, and added that in his contributions was some forter. testimony, and added that in his opinion Harris was going even faster than the rate named. He said that the police automobile was running so rapidly in an effort to catch Harris that he became afraid for thefr own safety. Harris denied he was driving his machine as fast as was charged.

his machine as fast as was charged.

In passing judgment on Harris, Justice Crutchfield reminded the student that he was in Police Court a few months ago on a similar charge, and that at that time he narrowly missed killing Peter H. Mayo, who was crossing Franklin Street, opposite the Jefferson Hotel. Harris was acquitted of the charge of recklessly driving his machine at that time.
